At Semmeset, the entire stock of the Bybee Dry Goods Company, was destroyed by fire. The fire started in the rear of the building about 1 o'clock and was under headway when discovered. William Bybee, the merchant, and family were living in the rooms just over the store. The key to the front door had been left in the rear of the store where the flames were the thickest. Bybee escaped by jumping from the window of the second floor. The loss was $15,000 with $9,000 insurance. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The following dispatch is sent from Frankfort: Following an investigation into the affairs of the county officials of Garrard county, M. H. Thatcher, State Inspector and Examiner, makes sensational charges in a report which he filed with Gov. Willson. He has placed his report in the hands of the proper civil authorities and will attempt to prosecute certain officials in the criminal courts. Important records in the clerk's office in Garrard were burned and Mr. Thatcher says that he "must conclude that these books and records were destroyed or abstracted with some criminal or unlawful intent in view." Mr. Thatcher charges that A. D. Ford, County Judge of Garrard, not only drew money from the State as committee for two idiots, in direct violation of the law, which forbids a county judge from acting as a committee for an idiot, but also drew money for an idiot after the death of the ward of the State. The money alleged to have been illegally drawn was paid back to the State by Judge Ford. Alleged discrepancies in the Circuit Clerk's office were found to be $2.48; in the County Clerk's office, $7.50; in the Police Judge of Lancaster's office, $2; County Judge's office, $382.40, showing a total of $394.48, which has been collected by State Inspector Thatcher and turned into the State treasury.

MIDDLEBURG.

There are five breach of the peace cases to be tried in the magistrate's court at Yosemite Friday. That will be a big day for our neighbors, as a magistrate's court usually draws a good crowd.

Clarence Coleman and wife, who have been visiting relatives here for several days, returned to Louisville Monday. Clarence, in his position and on account of his late experience, is somewhat muzzled, but is the same red hot democrat as of yore; and the administration at Washington hasn't enough money to buy him.

Rev. J. L. Owens preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist church here Sunday night and left Thursday for his far-away home at Waskom, Texas, where he has called to three churches. Bro. Owens is a good preacher and has endeared himself to his people here. He was an able defender of the Baptist church and the denomination in the State will suffer great loss in his departure.

Dr. James Wesley attended the Farmers' Institute here Monday. Mrs. Laura Lee and daughter, Miss Bessie, spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Lee's parents at Kingsville. M. G. Murphy, of Kingsville, was here Sunday. Robert Allen and wife, of Boyle, were here this week. W. T. Miller was in Stanford on business. E. J. Godbey was here from Hustonville. W. H. McClure came over from Mt. Olive to attend the Farmers Institute.

Judge Saufley for Governor.

News comes fresh from Stanford, down in Lincoln county, that Judge M. C. Saufley, just re-elected to the 13th circuit court bench, has about decided to yield to the solicitation of his friends and enter the race for the democratic nomination for governor. Judge Saufley has authorized no announcement to be made, but his friends say he will not be disinclined to heed the call, which is coming to him not only from his own district, but from other portions of the State where his great ability is known. Friends of Judge Saufley say that when the democracy is looking for the logical candidate to nominate, it can not find a man in the State who will better fulfill the qualifications needed for a leader in the next fight. Judge Saufley is conceded to be one of the strongest, if not the finest orators in the party in Kentucky to-day. His friends say that the fact that he has never allied himself with any faction, but has consistently supported the party nominees and worked for its welfare continuously, will count much in his favor. His long service upon the bench and his prominence as a member of that gallant Confederate band who followed Gen. Morgan, have made him well known to the masses of the party. Judge Saufley's friends say that when he does get in the race he will make things hum, speaking in every district.—Frankfort News.

Orchards and cornfields afforded plenty of food, but now that corn is gathered the hog has moved headquarters to the dense thicket on the Hutchinson farm, where he leaves a few tracks to let his owners know he lives and careth not. A Letter From "Buster Brown."

HARRODSBURG, KY., NOV. 15, 1909.

THE BROWN SHOE CO., St. Louis, Mo.

GENTLEMEN:

The children of Stanford will never forget Saturday, Nov. 13th. It will be a red letter day in their memories, I am sure. When we arrived in the morning, we were met by a delegation of children and mothers. We could hardly get through the crowd. We went to the store of CUMMINS & WEAREN, followed by the delighted children. It was not long before "Buster" was riding a bicycle (loaned him by one of the boys) up and down the street, the little fellows running their legs off to keep up with him. They could not do enough to show their pleasure at having "Buster" and Tige with them for the day.

The reception was held in the Walton's Opera House which was packed to the doors and everybody was delighted with the performance. After the reception, the store was crowded with little customers for "BUSTER BROWN" Shoes, and when we left, they were still selling Buster Brown Shoes to the little folks.

MESSRS. CUMMINS & WEAREN are very nice gentlemen and have a fine store. They received us very pleasantly and were much pleased with the advertisement.

Trusting they have good results from our efforts, I am, very truly,
B. L. S. BROWN.

YOU CAN FIND WHAT YOU WANT IN OUR LARGE ASSORTMENT OF CHILDREN'S SHOES.

Faulkner had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire Sunday night burning about 50 barrels of corn, just gathered and about 40 bushels wheat. Origin of the fire unknown.

Carrier and wife, of College Hill, are here visiting his mother and family. The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON

THE most conservative newspapers throughout the State are coming out for Judge M. C. Sausley, of Stanford, for governor. If he can be induced to run, he would be a certain winner and would reflect enduring credit upon the grand old Commonwealth. In Judge Sausley as the democratic candidate for governor, Judge O'Rear, or any other republican that could be named, would find a foe worthy of his steel. To his qualities of a gallant soldier, an able jurist, a distinguished and successful lawyer, may be truthfully added that of an orator who can stir his audiences to unbounded enthusiasm by his eloquence and convince the thoughtful by his logic. If an old time democratic majority could ever again be rolled up in Kentucky, Judge Sausley would be the proper man to select to lead the boys in the trenches to certain and overwhelming victory.—Advocate. As yet the Judge has given no public intimation of his attitude in connection with the gubernatorial fight, but the frank and open character of the gentleman causes all who know him to rest assured that a positive answer will come when the time is ripe, and if that answer should be "yes" he will wage a campaign which only those who have been pitted against him know how hard it is to overcome.

JUDGING by its recent editorial expressions, the INTERIOR JOURNAL fears that Congressman Helm would be in imminent danger of defeat in the event that opposition develops. There is no paper whose opinions are more highly respected by the Advocate than those of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, and in this particular matter the splendid foresight of the Stanford editor adds materially to his laurels as a prognosticator.—Advocate. Oh, no, Mr. Advocate, we are not in the least disturbed over the fact that Congressman Harvey Helm is to have opposition for another term in Congress. If you persist in wanting to run your Candidate, Hon. W. J. Price, who, by the way, is a most excellent gentleman and lawyer, trot him out and we shall see who is a real "prognosticator" as you term us. A man doesn't hardly become acquainted in Congress with its real workings in two terms in order to serve his constituency as he would like to do, but give him a third term and he will be better able to serve the people of his district. No higher compliment can be paid to a people than to say of them they are GRATEFUL for the favors they have received and now let's show our appreciation by sending a faithful public servant back to Congress.

THE United States gold mines produced $84,560,000 worth of the precious metal this year, an increase of a million and a quarter over last year. Colorado leads with California and Alaska second and third, and each contribute around $20,000,000. It is not generally known, but 21 States and territories, not including Porto Rico and the Philippines, produce gold. The total of silver produced during the year was 52,440,800 fine ounces, a net decrease of 4,073,900 ounces. As the production of silver is only valued at $26,050,600, it may become the more valuable metal if such a decrease continues.

IN Kansas City the other day a gambler died leaving a will providing that his estate be devoted to repaying the losses of his victims. Was he actuated by the hope of squaring things with the Almighty, or did he really feel that in winning from those with whom he played he really stole what he won? A man who plays on the top of a table and a square game, ought not to have such gnawing of conscience unless he won his money from those who didn't know the game.

WELLMAN ought to go slow in denouncing Cook as a fakir. A man who failed so utterly to reach the pole by balloon, that is to say, he got only within a few thousand miles of it, ought to have sense enough to go away back and sit down. What does he know about poles anyway? His entire stock in trade is gab and he is still working it for all it is worth.

THE L. & N. officials deny that that road has bought the Lexington & Eastern, though a great deal worse thing might happen to the latter road. President Smith is ever on the alert for more worlds to conquer, that is to say, more railroads to absorb, and we take this statement cum grano salis. If it hasn't bought it it will.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Willson appointed Hon. C. C. Bagby, of Danville, special judge of the Bourbon circuit court.

Lawson Reno, a banker, has been appointed collector to succeed E. T. Franks, of the Owensboro district upon the recommendation of Senator Bradley.

Gov. Willson appointed Hon. W. W. Stephenson, of Harrodsburg, special Judge of the Pulaski Circuit Court to preside at the trial of a case where the regular judge was disqualified.

Representative Shirley, of Kentucky, declared his purpose of urging upon Congress the necessity for building fortifications on both ends of the Isthmian canal while other work is progressing.

Mayor C. E. Woods, of Richmond, is trying to have City Attorney T. H. Collins removed from office because that gentleman spends his summers at his country home and moves to town in the winter.

President Taft has begun dictating his annual message to Congress and will be busy engaged at that task for the next few days. He expects to complete the work and have it in the hands of the printer by the last of the week.

All indications point to a majority of between 18,000 and 20,000 in Alabama against the prohibition constitutional amendment. Chairman J. Lee Long, who has been in charge of the fight against the amendment, claims that the majority will be fully 25,000.

The friends of Congressman Joe Rhinock have announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. Arthur B. Rouse, of Boone county, has announced himself as a candidate and he will have the backing of Mr. Rhinock and Judge Lassing.

A message from Washington states that Gov. J. C. S. Blackburn has tendered to President Taft his resignation as a member of the Canal Commission and governor of the Canal Zone, and the president has accepted the same to take effect Dec. 4, which is the end of Gov. Blackburn's leave of absence.

A conference on the amendment to be proposed by President Taft to the interstate commerce act was held at the White House. Attorney General Wickensham, Senator Cummins, of Iowa, who will introduce a bill of his own next week, and Senator Elkins, chairman of the Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, took up the subject with the president.

Recent conferences at the White House have pretty definitely developed two facts in connection with the legislative program of the administration at the coming session of Congress. The first of these is that there is no probability of the Monetary Commission's report being considered at this session. The second is that legislation looking toward the establishment of a system of postal savings banks will have to wait until the Monetary Commission report is made and a new currency law enacted.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Logan Crow, of Danville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Anna Louise, to James Powell Harper, Wednesday, Dec. 1, 1909, Lexington, Ky. Miss Crow formerly lived in the West End of this county and is a most charming young lady, while the groom is a former West End-er also, he is now a prosperous stock dealer in Salisbury, N. C.

Mr. Fred Neighbors, of Louisville, and Miss Ida Lee Bourne, of Lancaster, drove over from the bride's home and were married by Elder F. M. Tindler at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. K. Warner, of this place, Tuesday night. Mr. Neighbors is a valued employee of the L. & N. and is a splendid young man, while the bride is both a pretty and charming young lady. They left Wednesday for Louisville, where they will make their home in the future.

Bids for the championship fight between James Jeffries and Jack Johnson were opened in Hoboken, N. J., and because of the numerous and large offers made it was decided to postpone the selection of the battleground for a few days. The offers were the largest ever made for a prize-ring encounter.

THE informal reception given to the public at the Methodist parsonage on Tuesday afternoon and evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. The young people came in the evening. The pleasure of the occasion was much increased by Miss Fetro's delightful music.

"TEMPEST and Sunshine" is a spirited Southern comedy drama that rings true in its many original and distinct characters, with a romantic story, and irresistible appeal to the human heart and an unending series of ingenious complications and surprises. A remarkable cast, realistic scenery, novel and complete to be seen at Walton's Opera House on Saturday night, Dec. 4.

BETWEEN 600,000 and 700,000 pounds of tobacco have been bought by Mr. W. P. Kincaid in Lincoln county this year at an average of about 13c. It is said that the yield in Lincoln this year exceeds that of last year in point of grade. Just think of the "weed" bringing $78,000 or more into the pockets of Lincoln county people! Mr. Kincaid is prizing about 10 hogheads per day at his warehouse here. At his home at Paint Lick he has bought nearly 1,000,000 pounds at an average of about 13c and prizes 20 hogheads per day. That is going some.

LOOK at our new designs in Rochester Ware. W. H. Higgins.

OUR Christmas stock is arriving. Don't fail to see our display. W. H. Higgins.

BOUGHT A HOME.—W. P. Kincaid, the tobacco man, has bought of Cicero Reynolds his house and lot on Logan Avenue for $2,054.20. Immediate possession given.

FIRE.—Frank Hazelett's house, near Highland, caught fire the other day and a great many of the contents were burned. However, the house was saved after hard work of kind neighbors and friends.

W. F. MANN has attained an enviable reputation in the field of theatrical management because his ventures have been successes. One of his most popular productions is the dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' famous novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," which will be seen at Walton's Opera House on Saturday night Dec. 4.

MISS NETTIE WRAY, who has been the chief operator of the telephone exchange here for a number of years, has resigned to accept a position with a Chicago firm. The patrons here regret very much to have her leave, but wish her every success in her new undertaking. Miss Wray left Tuesday for Gainesville, Fla., where she will travel in the "land of flowers" for some time.

"TEMPEST and Sunshine," a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' clever novel will be the offering at Walton's Opera House on Saturday night Dec. 4. It deals with a people great in their simplicity and grand in their intensity, embodying all that is fair and just, a people whose hearts are bursting with love, truth and honesty, and from whom justice can't be bought. Interpreted by a clever cast.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—Joe Thompson, of Preachersville, aged about 23, and son of J. M. Thompson, attempted suicide Tuesday by taking a large dose of corrosive sublimate. Mr. Thompson had recently married a daughter of W. H. Cummins, of Preachersville. Drs. Brown and Phillips were called to relieve the young man's sufferings and worked incessantly with him. Mr. Thompson is reported as getting along as well as could be expected, but is not out of danger yet.

SWORN OFF BENCH.—In the trial of Nathan Pipes, at Hustonville, Wednesday, charged with poisoning a lot of cattle and horses, belonging to W. G. Cowan, of the West End, Squire W. M. Dudderar was sworn off the bench by the defendant through his counsel, Hons. Robert Harding, J. N. Saunders and Geo. E. Stone, from sitting in the case and that gentleman vacated the bench. The examining trial is set for Tuesday at Hustonville, at which trial it is likely that Squire James McKechnie will preside. County Attorney Burch and Geo. B. Sausley represent the Commonwealth.

THE successful dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," by Lem B. Parker, has given W. F. Mann an opportunity of producing this popular novel in its entirety for the benefit of admirers of Mary J. Holmes. The dramatization emphasizes clearly the direct opposites in temperament of "Tempest and Sunshine," two beautiful Southern girls brought into prominence by the lovable character of one and the devilishness of the other, who by her deceit and hypocrisy causes all manner of direful disaster in consequence of which innocent parties are made to suffer for the guilty. At Walton's Opera House Saturday night Dec. 4.

CHURCH MATTERS.

John Harvard, a Negro preacher who shot and fatally wounded W. B. Booth near Cochran, Ga., was captured five miles from there and burned at the stake.

There will be a special sermon at the Christian church Sunday morning by Rev. D. M. Walker. His subject will be: "Why Every Woman in the Church Should be a Member of the C. W. B. M." All the ladies are cordially invited.

Our Methodist brethren are noted for doing things. In the Albany Park section at Chicago they organized a church and erected a building, furnished it, installed electric lights and dedicated the structure with a membership of 20 and a subscription of $4,000 all in four days. That's moving some.

The Methodist and Presbyterian congregations will worship together Sunday morning and night in the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. J. Dickey will occupy the pulpit. This is in consequence of repairs being made on the Methodist church. Until the repairs are completed the Methodist Sunday school will meet in the Odd Fellows' building.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the constitutional. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood elements.

The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative induces nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
